

Alice N. Y. Woo

Alice Woo has been a director of The 1990 Institute since 2006 and has been a leader in developing its teacher and student exchange programs with China. Founder of the Vincent VC Woo Memorial Foundation, Alice has been a leader in philanthropy, donating to educational and medical organizations, and establishing scholarships for students. She is intimately involved in the development of the Institute's America-China Exchange (ACE) teacher/student exchange program in Jiangsu province, and won the Education Award from the Wuxi Education Bureau in 2009. Alice graduated with a B.S. degree from the University of California, Davis and an M.S. degree from Cornell University.