

Bill Kwong

Bill Kwong, Director of Global Initiatives at Crystal Springs Uplands School, has taken students, teachers, administrators, and interested individuals to China and other Asian countries on study tours since 1991. The objectives of his tours are: community service, historical learning, people-to-people exchange, and cultural immersion. Local schools that have benefited from the tours include Head-Royce School, Castilleja School, Cathedral School for Boys, Chinese American International School, Odyssey School, and the California Youth Symphony. Mr. Kwong is a seasoned educator and has been a teacher for 28 years. A native of Hong Kong, Mr. Kwong obtained his bachelor's degree from Cornell University and has masters degrees from New York University and Stanford University.